Kiwanis Rules call for an alternate meeting for those times when a regular meeting location is changed. The Roundtable for June 25th will be held at the Beaver Creek Country Club – Members can order off of the menu.

HERE'S YOUR SIGN!

The Kiwanis Park is getting one step closer to reality. The pavilion is being erected, the boat launch is nearly complete. We are looking for an immense flotilla of kayaks and canoes to be on the water for the grand opening late summer or early fall!

Speaker Notes:

Next week's presenter, Alan Delaverio, worked at the White House during the Reagan, Carter and Bush Sr. administrations. He will share some of those memories and artifacts he collected while there. During most of his time in the White House, his boss was Eugene Allen, on whose life the movie "The Butler" was based.

And then, the week after the Golf Tournament, we will continue to hear about long standing area businesses; beginning, with Foltz Manufacturing, Hoffman Meats, and Minnich Funeral Home. In the middle of that, Aaron House will share his experiences working with the Appalachia Service Project. Stay tuned for early August, when Mark Kraham, News Director at WHAG-TV will share stories about the various on-air personalities who have graced our evening news.

Planning ahead, put September 3 on your calendar for an off site visit to the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, which includes lunch. Members are encouraged to bring a guest to hear about this area treasure.
