Food Report

Club members enjoyed a crisp tossed salad, garlic bread, and a choice of traditional or vegetarian lasagna, followed by a delicious strawberry cobbler.

Happy Bucks – Bill McGovern offered a vial of sand from Omaha Beach to the top seller for Rose Day.

Mystery Handshaker - Fred Nugent sought a number that would be covered by the attendance, and settle on a 7; Al Werking would be eating for free next week, if he only had a pin.

Invocations

August 21 – Bob Bowers; August 28, Bud Barger; September 4 – Renee Mackey

Club Financials (This feature will be included starting in September). Members should be aware that we are $21,000 short of our budgeted goals for community support.

Rose Day Planning Meeting

Chair Bill McGovern reviewed the results of his dialogue with the supplier regarding a possible change in our processing steps. It appears we should keep doing what we are doing. Other topics discussed sales locations, and the possibility of a second sale in February to coincide with Valentine's Day.

Charter Night – Celebrate with Us!

Our annual Charter Night Celebration is scheduled for 6 PM March 20th at the Academy Theater. Dinner selections, prices, and information on the entertainment will be coming out soon. Mark the date!

News Briefs about our upcoming speaker:

Serving the general public in Allegany, Garrett and Washington Counties, the Western Maryland Consortium is a regional workforce development agency. It strives to help workers improve their skills and find employment, leading to self-sufficiency as quickly as possible. Skilled training is limited to those with a demonstrated need and is aligned with the skill shortages that have been reported by local employers. The Western Maryland Consortium is part of Maryland Jobs Now (MJN), a network of high-performing, results-oriented workforce organizations that invest in employment and training strategies, services, and initiatives to help Marylanders secure good-paying jobs in a thriving economy. Services available through the Western Maryland Consortium include: Job Search Assistance, Resume Development, Internet Job Search, Career Information, Interest Testing and Evaluation, Case Management, Workshops, Skill Training
